FIRM AS GIBRALTOR

Stood Our Representative, Says
Speaker Wilson of Mr.
Pogue.

Oct. 17th, 1911.
Hon. Marion F. Pogue,
Fredonia, Ky.

Dear Marion:—I understand that you have opposition for re-election in the person of Albert Butler, and I take this means of expressing to you my hope to see you returned to Legislature.

While I will not be a member of the next House I feel a deep interest in my State and in the Legislature. Having been Speaker of the last House, I was in a position to notice your every move and I want to assure you that there was no man there who came nearer being what a Representative ought to be than yourself. You did valiant service for the tobacco growers of your district and the State generally in assisting in the passage of the bills giving the farmers a right to pool their tobacco, and but for you I doubt very much if some of the bills would now be on our statute book, especially those vetoed by Governor Willson, which we had to pass over his veto. I also noted with pleasure the firm stand you always took on the side of the temperance people in trying to pass the "county unit bill." Every vote you cast was in the interest of this bill. I also remember what a fight we had in trying to keep Governor Willson's pet measures, the bill to raise the tax rate on the people, and the bill to issue State Bonds against our commonwealth, from passing, and had it not been for your assistance the Bond bill would have been taken from the hands of the Committee on Rules, of which you are a member, and permitted to pass. We had quite a fight to keep the tax rate from being raised and the bond bill from passing, and I congratulate the people of your district in having a man like you there, who was able to assist in defeating the measures.

I hope they will make no mistake, and regardless of party, will give you a big majority and send you back.

Very Truly Yours,
GEO. S. WILSON.

Synod of Kentucky.

The announcement was made that the Synod of Kentucky of the Northern Presbyterian church will convene at the Second Presbyterian church in Lexington on Friday night, October 27, and continue in session October 31. One hundred and twenty-five churches are represented in the Synod, and more than one hundred representative ministers and laymen will attend the meeting, which will be opened Friday night with a sermon by the Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, of Louisville, the retiring moderator, who will also preside until the newly-elected moderator assumes the gavel.

Mrs. Greathorse Weds, or Joins Her Husband, Which?

Mrs. Julia Dollins Greathorse, who came from British Columbia last year to visit at her old home left here last week ostensibly for Hot Springs Ark. where it is said she will apply for a divorce from her husband whom she has not heard from in sometime and whom she supposes is still in Canada. She will be then united in marriage to another gentleman who left here with her and whose name we learn is A. Warner of Clinton, Mo., Her friends here hope she will be happy in her newly wedded life.

A LATER REPORT.

One of Mrs. Greathorse friends in speaking of the romance above referred to, said it was her opinion that the man who came for her last week and who left here with her was none other than her Canadian husband who had made up his mind to come to the U. S. to live in a climate which suits his wife. We understand that this has been her hope ever since she left Canada and returned here and we hope her dream is now realized, and that she and her husband may live happily in Uncle Sam's domain.

Pogue Answers Independent Voter.

Frances, Ky., Oct. 19, 1911.
Mr. Editor:—Independent voter in last week's Record-Press puts some questions to the candidates for Representative. The questions are both reasonable and competent. I cheerfully answer:—First, I shall, if elected, cast my vote for that big hearted, big brained friend of the common people, Hon. Ollie M. James, for United States Senator.

Second; In regard to schools, I stand for the elimination of all centralization, dissemination and red tape from the present laws, giving the people home rule and every child an equal showing for an education, also wipe out every feature of double taxation and loop hole for graft.

Third; I stand squarely on my party platform for the extension of the county unit.

Fourth; I believe in direct legislation or questions effecting the public welfare; then favor such changes as will permit the people to propose, accept or reject legislation.

Respectfully Submitted
MARION F. POGUE.

Butler's Reply.

Salem, Ky., Oct. 20, 1911.
Editor Crittenden Record Press.
Marion, Ky.

Dear sir:—

I wish to state to the voters of Crittenden county and Livingston county, that if I am elected representative, I shall support all the measures and principles enunciated in the republican Platform adopted by the state convention that nominated Judge O'Rear.

While in the legislature, I voted for the County unit and redistricting bills and will do so again and all other measures that are for the benefit of the farmers and laboring classes.

I will support any amendment to the common to the common school law that will be for the best interest of the school children and the taxpayers of the state.

I shall support for United States Senator, the choice of those who elect me.
Albert Butler.

TESS AND TED HERE

The long looked for and much advertised visit of "Tess and Ted" the Star Brand Shoes kids was made Tuesday.

They arrived on the 11 o'clock train from Sturgis and were met by the Marion silver Cornet Band and Carnahan Bros. and Dodge, the local agents of the "Star brand Shoes" and were escorted around the city in two big touring cars. The young people were attended by Miss Mary Wilson of Chicago and Mr. Pierce the salesman for "Roberts, Johnson and Rand Shoe Company." They were entertained at the Hotel Crittenden.

The entertainment was billed to take place at 4:30 and a grand stand had been erected in the street in front of Carnahan Bros and Dodge big double front store on corner of main and Salem sts. One of the biggest crowds ever seen on a similar occasion was present and hundreds of children were delighted. "Tess and Ted" certainly made a hit here and everybody fell in love with them.

Jeff Rich Dead.

As forecasted in last weeks paper Jeff Rich of the Mattoon section died at the Evansville sanitarium where his eye was removed. He never rallied and passed away Thursday morning Oct. 19th at 4 o'clock and was buried by the W. O. W's. at Mt. Zion Friday. The funeral procession was one of the longest ever seen in the county. He is survived by his wife, who is a daughter of Thos Butler of Crittenden springs section, and a grand daughter of James Butler of this city.

If you have any doubt of the merit of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey one bottle will remove that doubt and your cough at the same time. Look for the bell on the bottle. It is the genuine.

Mrs. Miles Flanary who was a delegate to the Grand Lodge of the Eastern Star which convened at Louisville also visited her parents Judge and Mrs. T. J. Nunn, at Frankfort returned home Tuesday.

Road Builders Busy

In M'Cracken County.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 20.—At present there are 400 farmers of the county working the McCracken county roads. They are divided into twenty crews, and by the end of the month thirty miles of dirt roads will have been put in condition to stand the winter weather. Gravel is being used on most of them. The work is being done under the supervision of Road Supervisor, John Thomas. When the work is completed the roads will be in better condition than at any other time since they were built.

The automobile contest is still progressing nicely. Number 15 still leads but number 102 wins the set of dishes this week, by turning in the greatest number of votes.

Picks up Horseshoes; Falls Heir to $50,000

Connecticut Matron's Superstition
Justified, For She Gets $1,- 000 for Every Nail

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 26.—Picking up horseshoes and saving them has brought Mrs. Adolph Miller, of this city, a fortune of $50,000, according to her statement today. Mrs. Miller has just received news from Hamburg, Germany, that by the death of her Uncle, Adolph Rholf a German Officer, she has been left $50,000 to do with as she pleases according to the wording of the will. All Mrs. Miller has to do is to go to Hamburg and get the fortune.

"It all comes from saving horseshoes," said Mrs. Miller as she pointed with pride to a row of them over the front door of her residence.

"It is an old saying that for each nail in the horseshoe you will receive some time in your life $1,000. I do believe that for I found it to be true, every bit of it. I have about twenty shoes now and that makes about 50 or 60 nails."

Carter-Hunt.

Thursday afternoon Mr. James Carter of Beardstown, Ills., left Marion with his bride who was Mrs. Nellie Hunt widow of James Hunt a deceased son of Rev. John A. Hunt. Mrs. Carter was before her first marriage, Miss Nellie Clark, daughter of Rev. J. Riley Clark. She has three children by her first husband. They accompanied her to her new home in Illinois last week. Mr. Carter came here about two weeks ago to claim his bride.

The ceremony was performed by her father, Rev. J. R. Clark.
